

Textbook List 2021-2022

Instructions & Suggestions:

- Purchase from a family whose student(s) attended Greyfriars last year. [See “Book Sale Website” below]
- Search online at sites such as:
  - ♦ smile.amazon.com [they have a used book Marketplace].
  - ♦ www.chegg.com
  - ♦ www.abebooks.com
  - ♦ www.alibris.com

Most of the links provided in this document take you to smile.amazon.com, but you can shop around online or locally as much as you please. Unless otherwise noted, students all need to have the same exact books as the teacher to avoid confusion and so that classroom time is not wasted getting everyone “on the same page.” It is best to search by ISBN number to be sure you are getting the correct edition of the correct book. Be careful, as sometimes a website’s listing might not be entirely accurate (caveat emptor!). When entering an ISBN number into Amazon, remove any hyphens. Also, Amazon sometimes directs you to a sponsored listing or an alternative edition that might not exactly match by ISBN number. Amazon “Marketplace” used book sellers are simply individuals conducting transactions via Amazon and those listings might or might be entirely accurate. Book rentals are usually priced per semester, and you would typically need a book for the entire year at Greyfriars.

Be sure to order in plenty of time to receive your student’s books by August 18 (when classes start). Some sellers will send by media mail, which can take weeks to arrive.

Feedback:

Please let us know of any corrections to this Book List or other feedback you might suggest.

Amazon Smile Program:

For those of you who will be shopping at Amazon, if you begin at smile.amazon.com, and designate Greyfriars as your charitable organization, then 0.5% of your eligible purchases will be credited to Greyfriars. Used books would not be eligible, but many new books are included. Look for the “Eligible for Amazon Smile donation” underneath the price. Please tell your friends!

Kindles and Other e-book Readers:

Many of the required books are available much more cheaply in electronic format than printed (and weigh a lot less!). Kindles or other e-readers are welcome, but parents should approach that decision with great discretion. Our school policy is that laptops, Kindles, tablets and other similar devices [phones and mp3 players are not allowed to be used at all] can be used solely for reading or taking notes (i.e. not for any other purpose during school hours, including breaks). These devices must be in “airplane mode” (without any wireless or cellular connections) throughout the school day. Our experience has been that the temptation, especially for underclassmen, to send or receive a text, browse the Internet, check email or use electronic devices in some other way that is not allowed (play a game, play a video, etc.) has proven too much for most students. Further, most of the time active reading is helped by taking notes. A student could jot down notes electronically or in a notebook, but reading a physical book with a pencil in hand continues to be the most effective plan for most students.
